Ours is a media-dependent society. And the role of the media in democracy is vital, especially at a time when information and knowledge rules over the Globe. It is against this backdrop that the Press Club Trivandrum decided to begin a special condensed course in Journalism for interested citizens. It is an evening course. And there is no upper age-limit for admission. A graduation is the minimum qualification.

The Institute and the Course

The Institute offers a six–month’s condensed course for Post Graduate Diploma in Journalism.

The curriculum, the method of instruction, the examination, etc. are designed in a professional way with emphasis on the inculcation of an appropriate aptitude and outlook in the students.

The management of the Institute is vested in the Managing Committee of the Press Club, elected by the members of the Club who are working journalists and other media persons.

A Director who is responsible for its general day-to-day administration, training programmes, conduct of examinations, certification of achievements etc heads the Institute.

The institute has a Board of Studies appointed from time to time to oversee the academic content and quality of the course.

The present Board consists of

Dr. K.N. Panikker
Mr. Adoor Gopalakrishnan
Dr. G.B. Mohanan Thampi
Mr. Babu Bhaskar
